

Let the adventures begin.

If an out-of-the-ordinary future is what you seek, you've come to the very best place.
A place where stories of far-reaching success unfold, and eager learners truly come to be.

EXPLORE THE POSSIBILITIES ▶

A place to see. A place to be.

Winding through the ivory columns and pathways of brick and ivy, students forge personal paths of learning. Finding inspiration in a place where classic teachings and the technologies of tomorrow collide, Western Reserve Academy is a one-of-a-kind setting offering an array of experiences just as unique.

Walkable meets wonderful.

WRA is located in Hudson, where just steps away, students can experience the best of quaint, idyllic, small-town living and at the same time explore opportunities that will take them to the furthest corners of the earth. Surrounded by green parks, dreamy forests, as well as coffee shops, dining and boutiques, WRA students find solace—and good use of their free time—in this lovely home away. Actually, we can help you experience a bit of Hudson now. Take a look at this sneak peek video of our recent Hudson Mile scavenger hunt and race that we've just sent off to your students.

100% of students experience kindness and support

100% joy found in movie nights and ping pong parties

Offering a personal touch.

Welcoming you to our community is an ongoing endeavor. It is incredibly important too that all of our students and their families feel included, valued and heard. Our Head of School, Suzanne Buck, leads the day-to-day with a joyful spirit and purpose. Her commitment to our students is unwavering. At every opportunity, she can be found guiding, teaching, assisting and encouraging students—and absolutely enjoying every minute of it. Take a minute to check out one of her favorite throwback moments—carpool karaoke WRA style!
