THANK YOU

Dear Friends,

This year I read Outlive: The Science and Art of Longevity. In this bestseller, Dr. Peter Attia provides insight on what it takes to achieve a longer, fuller life. As I read it, I couldn't help but draw parallels between individual wellbeing and institutional good health and sustainability.

The fundamental notion is that with the right roadmap, a person can plot a path for their life, one that lets you outlive your genes to make each decade better than the last. Who would have thought that an intellectual outpost in the far-flung Western Reserve would last not for decades, but for centuries? On the cusp of our Bicentennial in 2026, we are outliving.

The rational part of the equation for longevity, whether individually or institutionally, requires a deep understanding of who you are and where you came from. This can be a humbling exercise. Was Western Reserve Academy always perfect? Of course not. But our DNA is good: we strive to be humble but excellent, grounded but aspirational. Our heads relentlessly pursue knowledge.

From an emotional standpoint, our hearts are earnest. We thrive in community. Our plans are rooted in strategy and mindful of the world we live in today — from its contaminants, like intolerance, to those things that are incredibly additive, like joy.

As a donor community, you have ensured our longevity. I will never feel that “thank you” is enough for the lifeline you provide. I hope you feel our deep gratitude for your gifts. And, I hope you feel great pride in not only the staying power of Western Reserve Academy, but also our power to soar.

With gratitude,

Suzanne Walker Buck

Named for the year of the founding of Western Reserve Academy, The 1826 Society honors those who support the school with an especially significant gift that greatly strengthens the school's financial foundation. In 2022-23, two hundred and forty 1826 Society donors contributed $2,140,908 to The WRA Fund. Their gifts preserve the distinctive strengths of Western Reserve Academy and impact all aspects of the student experience.

James Ellsworth Associates: $50,000+

The highest level of giving honors James Ellsworth, pioneering philanthropist and member of the Class of 1868. Mr. Ellsworth's many gifts rebuilt the campus in the early 1900s, and his generous estate gift created the WRA Endowment.

Head of School Associates: $25,000-$49,999

Donors at this level stand with the Head of School in furthering the school's core values of Excellence, Integrity and Compassion through their generous support.

Brick Row Associates: $10,000-$24,999

Brick Row defines our campus; donors at this level impact all aspects of the student experience. The memory of these beloved Collegiate Federal style buildings is forever etched in the hearts and minds of WRA graduates.

Chapel Associates: $5,000-$9,999

An iconic building on campus, the Chapel symbolizes the sense of community that donors at this level are committed to preserving. As the venue for Morning Meetings, the Chapel is also a reminder of the traditions that bind generations of WRA alumni.

Reserve Associates: $1,826-$4,999

Donors at the threshold level of the 1826 Society recognize the distinctive nature of every student's Reserve experience. Donors at this level are recognized for their commitment to the school's most fundamental goal: excellence in education.

Green & White Club: $500-$1,825

Young alumni support is essential for Western Reserve Academy to be able to offer a uniquely excellent education to all current and future Pioneers — and to help them develop into tomorrow's leaders. The Green & White Club allows alumni of the last fifteen years to become leaders in philanthropy.
